MODERN SLAVERY AND HUMAN TRAFFICKING STATEMENT

Euro Alloys Limited (“We”) are a global trader in industrial raw materials and semi-finished products.

Our policy on slavery and human trafficking

We are committed to ensuring that there is no modern slavery or human trafficking in our supply chains or in any part of our business. We are committed to acting ethically and with integrity in all our business relationships and to implementing and enforcing effective systems and controls to ensure that slavery and human trafficking is not taking place anywhere in our supply chains.

We do not engage in modern slavery and human trafficking with regards to the internal running of our business and have zero tolerance to slavery and human trafficking. We communicate this policy within the business and when dealing with our suppliers we seek verification about them that neither they nor any other party they do business with engages in actions of or akin to modern slavery and human trafficking.

We encourage anyone, both inside the business or a third party, who has any concerns to report those to us so we can investigate any issues. Any such reports should be made in the first instance to Christopher Russell-Jones, Company director.

This statement is made pursuant to section 54(1) of the Modern Slavery Act 2015 and constitutes our slavery and human trafficking statement for the financial year ending 30 September 2022. It was approved by our board on 8th March 2023.
